

FUMC Rockwall, TX

SPRING BREAK MISSION TRIP

Forms & registration @ www.fumcrockwall.com/youthmissions

WHO: 7th – 12th grade Youth

Priority to fill the trip will be granted to current 7 – 12 graders, their friends, adults, parents, and staff. Friends may participate after all First UMC Youth have had opportunity to participate and slots are still available.

WHAT: home repair & construction – including light demolition, debris removal, interior framing, interior sheetrock work, roofing, interior painting, outdoor maintenance... most of which require no previous construction experience.

WHERE: Cumberland Mountains, Tennessee

We will be staying in a camp facility in this pocket of Appalachia. Our work projects will be in homes & communities through the Cumberland Mountain areas.

WHEN: leaving March 13th 9 AM & returning March 20th 5 PM

OVERALL COST: Students $250 – of which $100 deposit due Feb 7th

Adults $150 – of which $50 deposit due Feb 7th

Cost could be supplemented by results of fundraising this spring & scholarship information available upon request.

ORGANIZATION: Mountain T.O.P. <http://www.mountain-top.org>

Mountain T.O.P (Tennessee Outreach Project) is a United Methodist affiliated mission organization that has been serving the Appalachia area of Tennessee for 35 years. Mountain TOP has two camps in the Cumberland Mountains which work year-round but heavily during spring break and the summer.

Questions – contact Paul Maletic, Youth Minister
(972) 771-5500 x22 church office – (972) 746-7209 cell

“Despite what people think, let YOUR light shine.”

2 Corinthians 4:3-6

